

DRAFT BILL

Democratic Republic of Timor-Leste
National Parliament

Bill no. /II

Establishing the Public Memory Institute (Instituto da Memória)

Explanatory Statement

The Commission for Reception, Truth and Reconciliation (Comissão de Acolhimento, Verdade e Reconciliação, CAVR) submitted its final report “CHEGA” to the President of the Republic on 31 October 2005, and the bilateral Commission of Truth and Friendship between Timor-Leste and the Republic of Indonesia (Comissão Bilateral de Verdade e Amizade entre Timor-Leste e a República da Indonésia, CTF) submitted its final report “Per Memoriam Ad Spem” to the National Parliament on 9 October 2008.

Both Commissions acknowledged the suffering inflicted upon the people of Timor-Leste during the conflict between 1974 and 1999, and in particular that of the victims of violations of human rights. The Commissions presented a set of recommendations to the State and Government of Timor-Leste, to civil society and to other States, and encouraged them to take the necessary steps to prevent violations of human rights from recurring and to address the plight of victims.

Thus, it is necessary to promote a better understanding of the nature, causes and impact of violations of human rights; as well as to promote a culture of responsibility/accountability, just reparations and respect for the rule of law. The history of Timor-Leste should be used to promote respect for human rights and to prevent the resurgence of violence.

It is also imperative to remember and to honour those who died in the context of the conflicts that happened in Timor-Leste between 1974 and 1999, and to provide support to the families of those who have disappeared, who are as yet unaware of what happened to them and who are believed to have died.:

Thus, within the framework of the reconciliation process referred to in article 162 of the Constitution, and complying with National Parliament’s Resolution no. 35/2009, of 14 December, it is the aim of the present bill to establish a body that will promote and facilitate the effective implementation of the recommendations made by the aforementioned Commissions.

It will be incumbent upon such a body to create the necessary conditions for the implementation of the CAVR/CTF recommendations, while encouraging the active involvement of the victims and their families and ensuring equal access for women to all the programmes designed and activities undertaken to implement the Commissions’ recommendations.

Such body shall also perform an advisory role and collaborate with relevant public or private institutions.

Thus, pursuant to article 97(1)(a) of the Constitution, and the provisions in articles 9(1)(b) and 90 of the Rules of Procedure of the National Parliament, the undersigned Members of Parliament submit the following Bill:

The National Parliament, pursuant to article 95(1) of the Constitution, enacts the following that shall have the force of law:
