Twenty-nine veterans of Timor-Leste's struggle for national liberation will be visiting Australia next week to meet with members of Australia's veteran community and to participate in events commemorating ANZAC Day on the 25th of April.

Delegations will be based in Perth, Sydney, Brisbane and Canberra with a small delegation travelling between key cities. Minister of Planning and Strategic Investment, and Chief Negotiator for Maritime Boundaries, H.E. Kay Rala Xanana Gusmão leads the visit and is accompanied by the Vice Minister for Social Solidarity H.E Miguel Marques Manetelu. H.E. Francisco Guterres, Former President of National Parliament and President of FRETILIN and Colonel Falur Rate Laek, representing the Defence Forces of Timor-Leste [F-FDTL], will also participate. Ms. Inês de Almeida, Liaison Officer for Veterans Affairs, Office of the Prime Minister of Timor-Leste, is the visit coordinator and Spokesperson.

This trip will further strengthen the close friendship between the veterans of Timor-Leste and the veteran community of Australia. In each location Timor-Leste's veterans will visit facilities that have been developed in Australia to support ex-service personnel, participate in ANZAC Day commemorations and meet with members of the Timorese Community. This year a group led by Colonel Falur Rate Laek are investigating walking treks in two National Parks to assist in planning the development of similar treks in the mountains of Timor-Leste. This group will be assessing the tourism potential of this idea and the opportunities it can provide for veterans to share the story of the Resistance.

The State President of the NSW Branch of the RSL, Mr Rod White, said that it has been a privilege for their organization to work with the veterans of Timor-Leste and emphasized that the strengthened bonds of friendship between the two veterans communities were part of what would be "an enduring relationship."
