upstream

Signing of Greater Sunrise PSC imminent: ANP President

Timor-Leste working hard to complete fiscal, regulatory and legal frameworks

Timor Leste's ANP president Gualdino do Carmo da Silva speaks at Rystad Energy's APAC Summit in Singapore. Photo: RYSTAD ENERGY

Ting Nan Wang
Asia Energy Correspondent | Singapore

Published 8 September 2026, 18:53

Timor-Leste's National Petroleum Authority (ANP) president Gualdino do Carmo da Silva is confident of developing a dedicated production sharing contract for the Greater Sunrise project as negotiations over the taxation regime and mining code near completion.

You need a subscription to read this story